Carry in Restaurants That Serve Alcohol

“YES” D.C. Code § 7-2509.07

DC law state you can’t carry in a place that serves alcohol but gives exemptions to places that hold a Class C/R or D/R license. These are restaurant licenses for food and Beverages with Spirits, Beer and Wine allowed for sale on the premises for consumption. So carry in places like Red Lobster, Chili’s, Fridays and even Hotels that have a Restaurant/Bar in the Hotel is legal in the District of Columbia as the law exempts these locations. DC forbids a licensed carrier from consuming or being under the influence when carrying. DC explains the different types of licenses for each establishment that sell alcohol for consumption on the premises. here

Note: A “YES” above means you can carry into places like described below. “NO” means you can’t. Handgunlaw.us definition of “Restaurant Carry” is carry in a restaurant that serves alcohol. Places like Friday’s or Red Lobster unless posted with “No Gun Signs.” This may or may not mean the bar or the bar area of a restaurant. But you can carry your firearm into a restaurant that serves alcohol and sit and eat without consuming. Handgunlaw.us recommends you not sit at the Bar or in the Bar area of such restaurants. In some states it is illegal to be in the Bar area of such restaurants. Handgunlaw.us believes you should never consume alcohol when carrying your firearm. In some states it is illegal to take even one drink while carrying a firearm. If you want further info on carrying in places that serve alcohol check your state laws

A person may use a self-defense spray only as reasonable force to defend themselves or their property and only if the self-defense sprays meets the requirements above.

What Does DC Consider A Loaded Firearm?

Note: With no definition on what the state considers a loaded firearm at the minimum I would have no cartridge in the firing chamber, cylinder, internal or attached magazine or attached to the firearm in any way.

State Emergency Powers
Handgunlaw.us can find no specific laws on the “Emergency Powers” of the Governor or other state officials. That does not mean there are no laws covering this topic but that they just couldn’t be found. During a state of emergency a Governor has very broad powers that are mainly restrained by law. If there are no laws limiting a Governor in what they can or cannot do they can do just about anything they deem appropriate in an Emergency and let things get sorted out after the emergency is past. Looking at New Orleans after Katrina shows you what they can or will do if there are no laws restraining State Government(s).

Note: Federal Law can apply if the state is receiving monetary and/or other assistance from the Federal Government. See US Code 42-5207 for Federal Law as it applies to States of Emergencies.

Minimum Age for Possessing and Transporting of Handguns.

DC 21 Y/O Title 7 Subtitle J Chpt. 25 § 7-2502.03.

This is the minimum age for possessing and transporting a handgun unloaded and secured in a vehicle without any type of permit/license to carry firearms. DC requires all firearms be registered.

Note: In some states Possession and Transportation can be very restrictive in that you can ONLY possess and transport a handgun to and from a Shooting Range, Gun Shop, property you own or other places you can legally possess a handgun. Some states do not have this restriction.

This is not the last word on possession and transporting of handguns in this, or any other state. Study your state law further for more information. See “RV/Car Carry” Section Above for more information.

Permit/License Image

This image gives a very good representation of the District of Columbia Carry License.

Firearms Registration Certificate. You must register the firearm you are going to carry with DC and carry that card along with your License to carry when carrying your concealed firearm. This is not 100% but a good representation of the Registration Card.
