Places listed below that have Rules that state no firearms allowed on Premises. Washington State Administrative Rules cover these areas.

Colleges/Universities, Licensed Child Care Facilities, Racing Association Grounds, An Emergency Respite Center, Licensed Pregnant and Parenting Teen Residential Programs And Their Facilities, Licensed Homes and Facilities That Provide Care To Children. Overnight Youth Shelter & Residence Operated By the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration

Note: People who work or attend school at such places can be fired/expelled if they possess firearms on these listed properties. The Administrative Rules of Washington have the information on carrying on College/Universities. You can see the code Here and look down to the listed College/University to see their rules on carry. Due to requirements of I-1639 it looks like Universities/Colleges will no longer be able to store firearms for students attending school.

Cities Can’t Ban Firearms in Their City Parks.

The WA Supreme Court refused to hear Seattle’s appeal to a lower Courts decision stating that Seattle’s ban on firearms in Parks was in violation of Washington’s Preemption law. This ruling stops all cities in Washington from banning firearms in their city parks. Ruling upheld can be read Here.

Carry in Vehicle With a Valid Permit/License

RCW 9.41.050 Carrying firearms

(2)(a) A person shall not carry or place a loaded pistol in any vehicle unless the person has a license to carry a concealed pistol and: (i) The pistol is on the licensee's person, (ii) the licensee is within the vehicle at all times that the pistol is there, or (iii) the licensee is away from the vehicle and the pistol is locked within the vehicle and concealed from view from outside the vehicle.

[2003 c 53 § 28; 1997 c 200 § 1;]

Note: Some people have stated that the wording in the above law means that you must have the firearm on your person when in a vehicle. The AG’s Office gave an answer to a Legislature in 1987 that stated it didn’t have to be on your person. This letter is not an official AG Opinion. The law reads the same as it did in 1987 as far as I can ascertain. You can read that letter Here.
Do “No Gun Signs” Have the Force of Law?

“NO”

“Handgunlaw.us highly recommends that you not enter a place that is posted "No Firearms" no matter what the state laws read/mean on signage. We recommend you print out the No Guns = No Money Cards and give one to the owner of the establishment that has the signage.” As responsible gun owners and upholders of the 2nd Amendment we should also honor the rights of property owners to control their own property even if we disagree with them.

“No Firearm” signs in Washington have no force of law unless they are posted on property that is specifically mentioned in State Law as being off limits to those with a Permit/License to Carry. If you are in a place not specifically mentioned in the law that is posted and they ask you to leave, you must leave. If you refuse to leave then you are breaking the law and can be charged. Even if the property is not posted and you are asked to leave you must leave. Always be aware of the possibility that responding Police Officers who may have been called without your knowledge and may not know the laws on trespass etc. could arrest you even if you are within the law.

Note: It is up to you to know those local ordinances. Remember that if you enter any property and the owner/responsible person ask you to leave you must leave. Failure to leave can result in Trespass Charges. The Minimum age for Open Carry is 21. I am being told to open carry under RCW 9.41.060 you only have to be 18.

You can read the Washington State Law Enforcement Training Bulletin on Open Carry Here.

In some states Open Carry is forbidden in places where those with a valid permit/license can carry. This is not the last word on Open Carry in this state. RCW 9.41.300 (1)(d)  (Only in parts of the restaurant where those under 21 years of age are allowed.)

Note: A “YES” above means you can carry into places like described below. “NO” means you can’t. Handgunlaw.us definition of “Restaurant Carry” is carry in a restaurant that serves alcohol. Places like Friday’s or Red Lobster unless posted with “No Gun Signs.” This may or may not mean the bar or the bar area of a restaurant. But you can carry your firearm into a restaurant that serves alcohol and sit and eat without consuming. Handgunlaw.us recommends you not sit at the Bar or in the Bar area of such restaurants. In some states it is illegal to be in the Bar area of such restaurants. Handgunlaw.us believes you should never consume alcohol when carrying your firearm. In some states it is illegal to take even one drink while carrying a firearm. If you want further info on carrying in places that serve alcohol check your state laws.

(ii) the waiver or suspension would conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, or

The governor shall give as much notice as practical to legislative leadership and impacted local governments when issuing orders under this subsection (2)(g)

(3) In imposing the restrictions provided for by RCW 43.06.010, and 43.06.200 through 43.06.270, the governor may impose them for such times, upon such conditions, with such exceptions and in such areas of this state he or she from time to time deems necessary.

(5) Any person willfully violating any provision of an order issued by the governor under this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Washington  18 Y/O   RCW 9.41.042   RCW 9.41.060   RCW 9.41.240

Note: In some states Possession and Transportation CAN be very restrictive in that you can ONLY possess and transport a handgun to and from a Shooting Range, Gun Shop, property you own or other places you can legally possess a handgun. Some states do not have this restriction.

This is not the last word on possession and transporting of handguns in this, or any other state. Study your state law further for more information. See “RV/Car Carry” Section Above for more information.

Permit/License Image

In Washington local officials issue licenses. Washington licenses can have a different format depending on the county that issued the license. The back of the license is blank.

This image has been digitally assembled. It is not 100% accurate but gives a good representation of the actual Permit/License. I will update it as more info becomes available. I have been told it is still paper but can be folded and laminated. It will be the same size as the Drivers License. Some Sheriffs may continue to issue the previous edition of the Washington CPL.
